Some of our readers have visited the Solarium — but we presume the great majority have not. Whether or not you have been there you now have the opportunity to aid in the "April Shower of Dimes" being sponsored by the Solarium Junior League, Victoria. A dime is a small donation — but many dimes will do wonders. All our readers, we presume, know that the Solarium is operated to treat and care for children from the entire province of British Columbia regardless of their creed, race or color. Can you think of a more worthy cause than sparing a dime (or more) to aid the crippled children at the Queen Alexandra Solarium? Send your dimes to: Solarium Junior League, Victoria, B.C., and help to bring comfort and happiness to the children today — they are tomorrow's citizens!

For the purpose of simplifying the canvass the units have been reorganized and South Vancouver Island now consists of two units, namely, Greater Victoria, No. 38, and Lower Vancouver Island Rural and Gulf Islands, No. 39.

The latter is made up of the following districts and has been given a quota of $750,000:

Gulf Islands,
Saanich Outer Wards,
View Royal, Colwood, Langford, Metcheson,
Sooke District, Port Renfrew and Clo-oose.

Major G. S. Yardley, unit organizer, stated today the unit quota had been broken down into sub-unit quotas and the following had been set for North and South Saanich (less the Inner Wards) and the Gulf Islands:

Saanich Outer Wards	$350,000
Sidney-North Saanich	116,000

North and South Pender Islands	14,500
Mayne Island	5,800
Galiano Island	5,100
Saturna Island	700
Local Total	$557,100

It is hoped that all residents of the above areas will do their share in helping to reach the respective quotas making the Sixth Victory Loan an overwhelming success. Victory is within our grasp now, let's help it to come soon and bring the boys back to the Old Home Town.

chapter was asked to remit promptly their share of the pooling of fares of delegates to the annual meeting. A resolution calling for a reduction in size of "Fishes" was to be forwarded to National Chapter.

A resolution dealing with the proposed war memorial was discussed but decision left over until the May meeting. Mrs. Bruce, the educational secretary, led a discussion on what would make suitable mementos of (Please turn to Page Two)

Orchestra, who will keep the dancers in a dancing mood with fox trots, waltzes, medleys and all the modern numbers. The committee in charge is working hard to keep up the standard of the chapter's dances so you are invited to plan to be there.

Now Air Bomber

SGT. R. C. PRIMEAU

The Review has been informed by Royal Canadian Air Force, Western Air Command, Vancouver, B.C., that Sergeant Richard C. Primeau, Centre Road, Sidney, has recently graduated as an Air Bomber of the R.C.A.F. at No. 2 Air Observer School, Edmonton, Alberta.

"Dick" is well known to the younger people of the Sidney district, being educated in the local schools. All wish him the best of luck.

"AIR FORCE" AT THE REX THEATRE

Gig Young, Warner Bros. featured player currently enacting the role of co-pilot in "Air Force," first film to depict accurately the hardships faced by our air arm in South Pacific waters, is playing his part with a vengeance. "Air Force" shows at the Rex Theatre, Sidney, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week, and at the Rex Theatre, Ganges, Monday, next week.

Gig knows too well the tragic story of too little and too late. His father-in-law and close pal, James Beverly Stapler, is today a prisoner of war because of that dramatic condition among our far-flung outposts air fighters.

AMONG FIRST PRISONERS

Stapler, formerly a wealthy gold mine operator of Baguio, Philippine Islands, was among the very first prisoners taken by the Japanese. Except for the newspaper account listing him among war prisoners, not a word has been heard from him, either by Gig or Gig's wife, the former Sheila Stapler.

"If 'Air Force' helps hammer home the necessity for more and bigger bombers in the South Pacific," Gig says, "then I will at least have helped to some degree in avenging Jimmie Stapler's plight. I don't know of a better way of bringing home the message than the stark, unadorned story of heroism shown by our airmen that 'Air Force' tells."

Young, who was discovered by his own studio through his work in "The Gay Sisters" is rated high among Hollywood newcomers. In "Air Force" he shares billing with John Garfield, Harry Carey, George Tobias and Arthur Kennedy.

Tuesday and Wednesday, next week, at the Rex Theatre, Sidney, the feature picture will be "The Kansan," starring Richard Dix, Jane Wyatt and Albert Dekker. There will be an added feature, "Ghosts On The Loose," with the East End Kids.

This Is The Spirit That Gets Results!

This very generous and public spirited assistance is greatly appreciated by the board of management and membership.

$36.50 Realized For Piano Fund

An old fashioned box social was held in Wesley Hall recently. The program was given outstanding support by artists of the R.C.A.F., Raymond Bodmann, violinist, L. A. C. Thayer, accordionist and L. A. W. Thomas, vocalist. J. P. Shuster also delighted the audience with a few of his readings. E. R. Hall was master of ceremonies for the evening. While the boxes were being judged a popular sing-song was enjoyed. The funds, totalling $36.50, went towards the piano fund.

Air Express, New Fire Truck, Hospitalization Discussed

The regular monthly dinner meeting of the Sidney Businessmen's Association took place in the Sidney Hotel on Thursday evening, Hugh J. McIntyre presiding.

AIR EXPRESS

Following the adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting the question of securing an arrangement whereby air express parcels could be sent and received through an office in Sidney was discussed. Finally it was decided to ask F. N. Wright to look into the matter, as he had been very successful in arranging the direct air mail service between the Sidney Post Office and the T.-C.A. mail plane at the local airport. At present one may send parcels by air express from the T.-C.A. office at the airport, Sidney, but incoming parcels go through to Victoria and are thus considerably delayed in reaching Sidney.

ALMOST COMPLETE

Report from the chairman of the fire protection committee, George Gray, showed that the new fire truck was almost complete. The arrival of a siren and additional hose for the reel on top of the booster tank and one or two other minor things will complete the truck. It has been a long, strenuous time for the boys of the fire brigade in overhauling, rebuilding, painting, etc. Today the fire truck No. 2 is something to be proud of. It certainly is a credit to the boys and should prove an inspiring sight to a citizen upon its arrival at an outbreak of fire.

BEING CONSIDERED

There was read a communication in connection with the proposed road from the Davis property on the Swartz Bay Road to connect with a road leading to the east from the West Saanich Road. It was intimated that the matter was being given consideration.

DEEP DRAINAGE

J. G. Mitchell consented to interview Hon. Norman Whittaker and officials of the Public Works Department in connection with the proposed deep drainage plan for Sidney. A start was made some time ago on the project, but the work was stopped due to a division of opinion among the engineers as to what the ultimate system should be, one costing $28,000 and the other $50,000. One Missing Link Means No Telephone Service

Any one of a number of things may prevent people who change their residence from having telephone service these days — even though there's a telephone already in place.

For example, there may be no line from house to telephone pole; there may be no space circuits in the cable to the central office; or there may not be enough central office equipment. There are many links in the chain, and one missing link means no telephone service.

Wartime restrictions prevent additions to telephone equipment because materials and the personnel and machines of manufacturers are needed to fill war orders.

Cpl. Twiss, R.C.A.F., Of Galiano, Recommended For Recognition

For displaying great gallantry by entering a capsized aircraft which crashed at night and despite the danger of the capsized aircraft sinking and burning, which it did later, Cpl. G. T. Twiss, of Galiano Island, has been recommended for recognition for his good work in saving the life of another airmen, so the Review learns.

Corporal Twiss, an unassuming young chap, well-known in the Gulf Islands, is very modest about the rescue. When asked what he thought of the recommendation he replied, "There was nothing romantic about the crash and I do not want to see another one . . . especially at night. As for receiving a medal . . . well . . . don't bank on that . . . but, yes, it would be nice and besides it would mean a trip down east for myself and two of my family to be present at the investiture. That part would be very nice indeed."

The four man crew of the crash boat had just finished supper and were relieving another crew. The crash boat was standing well down the channel about in line to where the aircraft would likely land. The night was clear . . . a little chilly . . . and the surface of the water was like a mirror. The aircraft completed its circuit, cut its engines, came gliding in and leveled off perfectly. All of a sudden the nose dug in and there was a great splash and a giant flash of green and red flame, the engines cut off and the lights of the aircraft went out. Before the splash had settled the aircraft was over on its back and then silence. It all happened very quickly.

Corporal Twiss as coxswain opened the throttle of the crash boat and started towards the overturned aircraft. Flood lights were turned on and as they drew close to the aircraft the lights picked out an airman wearing heavy flying clothing struggling in the water. The crash boat pulled alongside and LAC Randell pulled him aboard. By this time most of the aircrew had climbed onto the wing while others had been pulled out of the water. Some of the others were not accounted for.

"We drew alongside of the fuselage at the mainplane," said Corporal Twiss, "and while the Control Officer held the boat I answered the call of Flt.-Lt. Garnett for lights and who said he heard someone inside the hull calling for aid. I climbed onto the overturned hull and my flashlight picked out the open escape hatch that had been torn open by the force of the crash. I pointed my light through the opening and looked inside. Everything was wet, cold and twisted out of position, torn metal jutted everywhere, gear was hopelessly scattered and tangled. I carefully let myself down through the hatch and I found myself standing behind the engineer's chair in a few inches of water which

Brigadier Wingate's Campaign In Japanese Occupied Territory

One of the most dramatic campaigns of the war. A large detachment of British and Gurkha troops commanded by 38-year-old Brigadier Wingate, has returned from a deep penetration into Burma after raising bands of Burmese patriots to help in the fight with the Allies. In this "patrol in strength" over a period of three months, they blew up railway lines, sabotaged Japanese military stores, destroyed bridges and dislocated road transport.

was already beginning to fill the aircraft. My light picked out an injured airman, Sgt. Duckworth, dangling upside down, trapped by the legs and held captive by his own weight. He was more than half covered in dinghy equipment, ration boxes with jagged metal surrounding him. I had difficulty clearing the debris from around him, then securing a grip on his legs I gave a pull but could not move him. I then took a firm hold on the seat itself and was successful in twisting it from the airframe of the aircraft. This enabled me to get a good grip on him and I was able to pull him loose but at the same time I had to be careful not to gash him on the jagged metal. I assisted him to the opening and then with the help of others we managed to get him out. I then went back to have another look for more survivors but was unable to see anyone."

The crash boat then searched the surrounding waters for other survivors but it was unsuccessful. The injured were then taken to the dock where the ambulance rushed them to the hospital.

"COMBINED OPERATIONS INCLUDE YOU"

● Invasion demands more action from every fighting service . . . combined operations. Combined operations include you, too.

Despite the shortage of help and equipment, Canadian farmers have responded nobly to demands for increased production of foods.

But there is one thing on which a better job can still be done,

MORE MONEY is needed to fight a more intensive war.

All Canadians will be asked to furnish this money. It's a duty that we who are at home owe to the men on the fighting fronts.

In these days most farmers have higher incomes . . . money to save. And that is the job that they are asked to do . . . save money and lend it to Canada.

You are not asked to give money . . . just to lend it. When the war is over you'll have this money to "plough back" into your farm. So save now to lend to your country. Save to have money to improve your farm; money for new stock and implements; money for more land or new buildings . . . for a new car . . . for new furnishings and conveniences for your home.

All you can lend is little enough for a cause so vital for a need so urgent. And the more that you can save and lend to your country now, the more you will have for your own use when the war ends.

for a NATION AT WAR

SINCE THE CALL TO ARMS

WITHIN AN HOUR of the opening of hostilities the Canadian National began what has proved to be the largest and one of the most exacting war jobs in Canada. This job has continued day and night without stop for four and a half years.

FROM SEPTEMBER 10, 1939 to March 10, 1944 the Canadian National carried more than 100 million passengers and 300 million tons of freight. Since the beginning of the war the Canadian National Dining Car Department has served 13,631,357 meals.

THE RAILWAY not only hauled away the completed munitions of war, but brought in the raw materials to make them. Without this two-way service, Canada's magnificent job of production could not have been carried out. The Canadian National itself builds mine-sweepers, 12,000-ton freighters, naval guns and gun mountings, aircraft components, and parts for other gun factories.

OF THE 100 MILLION PASSENGERS carried, a high percentage consisted of members of the armed forces proceeding to camps for training and to shipboard for embarkation.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE COMPANY, though reduced in numbers by sinkings through enemy action, have served gallantly in the war as auxiliary armed cruisers, hospital ships and transports.

CANADIAN NATIONAL Express and Telegraph facilities have worked to capacity to meet war demands.

The Canadian National's nine all-year hotels, situated in cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, have provided service of an essential nature to those engaged in the war effort. All the Company's resort hotels are closed for the duration.

22% OF THE PERSONNEL in Company's service in 1939 have joined the armed forces. In Victory Loan campaigns Canadian National men and women have purchased bonds to the amount of $26,921,600.

TRANS-CANADA AIR LINES, subsidiary of the Canadian National Railways, has carried 435,000 passengers during the war, 9,417,000 pounds of air mail letters, and 1,476,000 pounds of wartime air express. Trans-Canada Air Lines is also flying the Atlantic regularly with mail to and from the armed forces.

Highlights of 1943 Operations
Tons of freight carried	80,426,781
Passengers carried	34,500,731
Gross Revenues	$440,615,955
Net Operating Revenue	$116,140,285
Cash Surplus	$35,639,412
Total Payroll	$195,555,000
Average number of Employees	101,126
Total System Route Mileage	23,562

The Canadian National has been privileged to join with all the citizens of our country, including those who are serving in the armed forces, in the prosecution of the war. It believes that Canadians will be interested in this outline of some of the System's war activities.

Extracts from Annual Report of the Directors of the Canadian National System:

OUR OBJECTIVE IN 1943, as in other war years, was to place the full strength of our manpower and facilities behind the war effort of the United Nations. To this end all energies have been directed. The requirements of the armed forces, of industry and agriculture, for transport and other services, have been met in all of the nine Provinces of the Dominion and in the important sections of the United States in which we operate.

RECORD TRAFFIC

These demands were greater than ever before, the traffic moved in 1943 being 17.3% greater than in 1942, the previous peak war year, and 44.7% greater than in 1928, the peak peace year.

Freight traffic in 1943 was more than double that of 1939, and passenger traffic four times that of 1939.

Despite this, the very large movements of war materials and personnel reached their destinations in accordance with schedule arrangements. There was no lowering of the recognized standards of safety.

MANUFACTURE OF MUNITIONS

The Company also extended its activities as a manufacturer of munitions, ships and naval appliances.

EARNING POWER

The 1943 operations demonstrated the great earning power of the System, the railway proving again that it can handle an immense volume of business economically as well as expeditiously.

After providing from revenue for all operating expenses (including deferred maintenance, depreciation, amortization of defence projects and reserve for inventories) and also a reserve for pension contracts, taxes, interest on funded debt and Government loans, the surplus paid in cash to the Government was $35,639,412.

OPERATING EFFICIENCY

The operating ratio for the year was 73.64% (an all-time record) as compared with 76.93% in 1942 and 81.99% in the peak peace year of 1928.

It is interesting to note that the vastly increased war traffic in 1943 was handled with 16.6% fewer locomotives, 15.4% fewer freight cars and 5.1% more passenger cars than was the traffic of 1917, the fourth year of the last World War.

SPECIAL SERVICES PROVIDED

The Company was honoured in being selected to provide extensive train and other services for Prime Minister Churchill, President Roosevelt and Madam Chiang Kai-shek during their visits to Canada in 1943.

POST-WAR

Changing conditions will call for new methods of railway operation and new types of service, and there must needs be a continuing search for improvement in all aspects of the railway industry. In view of this, the Company has in hand a programme of research. This programme, in addition to considering ways and means of improving service and efficiency of operation, also encompasses the problems of post-war reconstruction and rehabilitation.

THE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES in all departments of the System have worked hard and loyally to cope with increased responsibilities arising out of the war, and the directors record their appreciation and thanks. The traditional harmonious relations between management and employees were maintained throughout the year. Appreciation also is expressed to shippers and the travelling public alike for their cooperation in and sympathetic understanding of difficult operating conditions caused by the war.

ACTIVITIES AT THE HOSTESS HOUSE, SIDNEY

By A. H.

We have been very busy during the Easter holidays. Wives arriving with absolutely no place to stay, but somehow through the kindness of many of our volunteer hostesses we have met the sudden emergency. Many W.D.s have told us of the wonderful time they have spent at the W.A.A.F. Nest. Thanks to Mrs. Baker. Monday being Easter Monday no re-make classes, but Monday next, April 14, Miss Gibbons will again be with us to help with those new ensembles.

The next clinic will be held Monday, April 24, with a doctor in attendance. Wednesday the entertainment committee met. The weiner roast which is to be held at the W.A.A.F. Nest on Wednesday, April 19, seems to be a very popular form of entertainment, judging by the names on the list.

Repatriation was the principal topic of discussion at the R.A.F. Wives' Club which met on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Dukes, the president, in the chair. Mrs. Maxwell, wife of Group Captain Maxwell, and her two lovely daughters, were present. We hear that the stork has paid a visit to W.O. and Mrs. Hartwell with a son, also brought a daughter to Plt. Sgt. and Mrs. Rivers. Congratulations to you both.

Friday being Good Friday no dance was held but we are very fortunate to have the R.C.A.F. Orchestra to play for us Tuesday night.

Saturday last a very popular wedding took place in the R.C.A.F. Chapel when AWI Anne Muir, R.C.A.F. W.D., became the bride of LAC Ted Savage, R.C.A.F. Both are well known here. Plt. Lt. Morrison, R.C.A.F. padre, performed the marriage ceremony and later proposed the toast to the bride. Miss Muir was given away by Cpl. McMurray and was attended by AWI Hyde as bridesmaid, while the groom was accompanied by Cpl. Hamilton Grundy as best man. The reception was held at the Hostess House, which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. "Red," our mascot, was very much in prominence to bring good luck to LAC and Mrs. Savage. He was very proud of the huge pink bow with which he was adorned.

On Sunday after Evensong the Anglican boys and girls met. Canon Creal led the usual interesting discussion group and related some very interesting stories, after which Mrs. Hemphill and Mrs. Owen Thomas served refreshments.

Aeroplane "spotters" from all parts of Vancouver Island and districts attended an instruction course in aircraft recognition held by the R.C.A.F. at Qualicum Beach recently. Delegates included V. C. Best, regional director of the Aircraft Detection Corps, of Ganges, who is pictured above.

The observers underwent three days of extensive training in how to teach others the most modern ways of recognizing types of aircraft in flight. Results of the course were highly satisfactory, said Squadron Leader R. E. Slinger, Senior A.D.C. officer of Western Air Command.

"Our civilian observers who volunteer for the job, are doing a fine service for their country, and with the knowledge they gained from the course, will be able to better the work of the Aircraft Detection Corps," he said.

The Squadron Leader explained that observers up and down the coast had been enlisted to report movements of all aircraft in their areas, and in carrying out these duties, had saved the lives of many airmen. Lost aircraft had been guided home in bad weather through A.D.C. reports, airmen stranded in outlying parts had been assisted time after time by the A.D.C., and on top of these services, should enemy forces attempt raids on Canada's western shores, the A.D.C. would serve as one of the front-line defences.

The course, conducted by Flying

Officer F. Holland, Vancouver, featured training in recognition of types of aircraft, friendly and otherwise, seen or liable to be seen on the Pacific Coast. Also, observers received instruction in reporting procedure, communications and flying control. Squadron Leader R. E. Slinger, Flying Control Officer at Western Air Command, was one of the speakers in this connection.

Other service men in attendance were Flt.-Lt. C. P. Chason, Vancouver A.D.C. officer, and Sgt. L. Keen, A.D.C. representative in Victoria.

Fertilizers For Victory Gardens

By J. J. WOODS,

Dominion Experimental Station, Saanichton, B.C.

In order to obtain a satisfactory amount of plant growth in vegetable gardens some chemical fertilizer should be used. The following recommendations are based on average garden requirements. After the garden area is dug, broadcast one week before planting an 8-10-5 mixture at the rate of two pounds to each 100 square feet of area and rake this in when preparing the seed bed. This treatment should be given for both row and transplanted crops. During the growing season additional fertilizer in the form of sulphate of ammonia will ordinarily prove beneficial. This should be applied as a side dressing at a rate of one-half pound for each 100 square feet of area. Reduced to average garden requirements quantities to apply are as follows: for rows 25 feet long and 12 inches apart, two ounces. For each additional six inches between rows add another ounce. On this basis rows four feet apart, as for corn, require eight ounces. The wider the spacing between rows the more the fertilizer should be broadcast to cover the entire area. Watering will ordinarily be necessary to dissolve fertilizer applied after May 1.

Transplants such as cabbage and tomatoes when set out may be given up to one ounce of a complete fertilizer well mixed with the soil in the hole before setting or with sulphate of ammonia at the rate of one-half ounce. If a liquid fertilizer is preferred such may be used to water in the transplants. Dissolve two ounces of sulphate of ammonia in a gallon of water and apply one quart of this solution to each plant. It is very convenient to keep a stock solution of fertilizer as above with which to water individual plants during the growing season. Side dressings either in solid or liquid form should not be applied more frequently than at monthly intervals or three times during the growing period for long season crops such as corn and tomatoes. For convenience in measuring fertilizer when scales are not available three level plastic teaspoonfuls equal one tablespoonful. A tablespoonful of sulphate of ammonia equals one-half ounce.

Investiture Of Rover Scouts At St. Andrew's Is Impressive

Considerable interest was taken in the investiture of six candidates as Rover Scouts at St. Andrew's Church, Sidney, on Tuesday evening, April 4, as was shown by the attendance of a large number of citizens. As many of those present had never witnessed this ceremony it added much to their enjoyment of the occasion, and those who had been present at a similar ceremony fully appreciated the solemnity of the service. Scout Master T. H. King was in charge of the service. Prayers were offered at the beginning and at the conclusion of the ceremony by Canon H. H. Croll. A number of those present came from Victoria, and clergymen of the various denominations in Sidney were also present.

The candidates were G. Morgan, R. Howsam, D. Peck, D.

Humphill, W. Newton and K. Hollands. The sponsors were F. Timms and W. Buxter, and Rover Mate A. Whitten presented the candidates to the Scout Master. The Scout altar was covered by the Cross of St. George, and on the altar was a miniature Cross with three steps leading up to it. The Cross, the first step being for the Cubs, the second step for the Scouts, and the third step for the Rover Scouts. Also upon the altar were four candles, each a different color, yellow, green, red and white, representing in their order the Cubs, Scouts and Rovers, and the white one that they might see their way. A large silver bowl and St. Gullstrand's sword were also on the altar. Before taking their obligation each candidate washed his hands in the clear water and

Speculation

The world is old,
And wracked with mighty pain,
And tales are told
Of war on war again;
For sons now die
Where fathers fell and bled—
But still the cry,
"To arms!" thrills quick and dead.

Now medals won
With bars and stripes complete
Replace the son
Who died in battle's heat.
There plays the child
Who in turn rises up,
Drink vengeance wild
"Till he has drained the cup?

Jeepies must wait
A score of years or more,
Meanwhile choke hate,
Sow seeds of peace, not war
Now we must guess
But when he is a man
We'll know success,
Or failure of our plan.

his hands were dried by one of the sponsors. The ceremony of taking the obligation was very impressive. After taking the obligation each candidate knelt on his left knee, whereupon Scout Master Freeman King touched each one upon the shoulder with the sword and commanded him to arise. Each candidate was presented with a Rover Scout badge and shoulder badge. The address given by the Scout Master at the conclusion of the ceremony was most impressive, the theme being "Service Through Sacrifice."

At the conclusion of the ceremony many of those present adjourned to the Scout Hall, where light refreshments were served and much enjoyed. Later W. Solway, provincial commander of the Scouts, presented each newly-obligated Rover Scout with his certificate, and his humorous remarks as he presented each certificate created much merriment. This feature of the evening brought the ceremony of investiture to a close.

Mrs. Owen Thomas, Mrs. Hemphill and Mrs. Freeman King had charge of the refreshment department, assisted by a number of young ladies.

It is worthy of note that Scout Master Freeman King has been connected with the Scout movement for the past 36 years, being one of the first to become interested in this laudable undertaking, and he is well known throughout the province for his untiring efforts in connection with organization. He has the respect and admiration of all the boys with whom he is associated, and the parents are grateful for his splendid work with the boys, knowing that he is teaching them to become worthy citizens of our fair Dominion.

FULFORD, April 12.—The baby clinic sponsored by the South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. Gyles on Wednesday afternoon—owing to Mrs. R. On his visit next meeting (the first Wednesday in the month) the children will be inoculated and vaccinated. It is hoped that many parents with small children will make an effort to be present and take advantage of this free and valuable service.

Ladies' Aid Meets In Ganges Inn

GANGES, April 12.—The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid to the Ganges United Church was held, recently, in Ganges Inn, with Mrs. J. Dewar presiding and taking the devotional period. The treasurer reported that $19.90 has been taken at the recent stall, bringing the total balance in the bank and on hand to $60.74. All accounts were passed for payment, $25 was voted, as the quarterly donation, to church funds and it was decided to purchase new pipes for the church stove. The deacons secretary gave her report and stated that several articles had been donated towards a sale to take place later in the year.

Mrs. J. D. Reid undertook the management of the church decorations for Easter and Mrs. E. Parsons the arrangements for the cleaning of the church for April.

Ten hostesses were Mrs. B. Krebs and Miss M. Munson.

FIRE-FIGHTING EXHIBITION AT GANGES

GANGES, April 12.—A crowd of interested spectators gathered recently at the old hotel site, a large piece of vacant land at Ganges Harbour, to witness a fire-fighting demonstration by the Ganges fire crew, under the direction of A. B. Elliot, chief fire warden, assisted by K. Butterfield, N. W. Wilson, R. B. Littlefair, A. C. Cartwright and other crew members. A huge erection of old wood, etc., was lighted and when the fire was well under way the hose was laid in an adjacent stream and played upon the blazing rubbish, quickly extinguishing the flames. The object of the demonstration was to try out the recently acquired fire nozzle, purchased by public subscription and which now proved its efficiency with such excellent results.

The well equipped fire truck had been given to the Ganges Civil Defence, for which, also, the tank, hose and pump had been supplied by the government. The truck had been fitted up by Mr. Elliot, who expressed his hope to keep it, as a permanent fire-fighting outfit, which is an acquisition to the island and the residents owe a debt of gratitude to such public-spirited men and band of willing and voluntary helpers.

R.A.F. Coastal Command Fortresses Cover Vast Atlantic Stretches

Many types of aircraft — Sunderlands, Hudsons, Liberators, etc. — are attached to Coastal Command. Among them Flying Fortresses cover hundreds of thousands of miles a year on patrols over the North Atlantic and the far north. Sinkings by U-boats in 1943 were 60% less than in 1942.

We Can Do Better

In the past, wars have brought with them a high cost of living, ending with inflation. This sapped the strength of nations and added poverty and injustice to the other tragedies of war.

Later it has led to falling prices and unemployment.

In this war, we Canadians are determined to head off this danger.

We have done much to avoid a repetition of the disastrous price rises of previous wars. We have paid higher taxes. We have bought Victory Bonds. We have severely limited profits.

We have put a ceiling on prices. And to make it possible to hold the ceiling, wages and salaries have been controlled.

In one way or another most increased costs have been absorbed and very few passed on to the consumer.

Holding the ceiling has been a struggle. But the results have been worth while. From 1914 to 1919 prices rose 60%. From 1939 to 1944 the rise has been only 18%.

This effort of the Canadian people has been successful enough to be noted in other countries.

But we must continue to hold the line. We need not let history repeat itself. We can do better.

We can all help—

By cutting down unnecessary spending, and buying Victory Bonds instead.

By not hoarding or buying in black markets.

By not taking advantage of the war situation to press claims for higher prices, higher wages, higher rents or higher profits.

(This advertisement is one of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing a further increase in the cost of living now and deflation later.)

Incendiary Fires Of Enemy Origin A Possibility States W. C. Mainwaring

W. C. Mainwaring, chairman of the Advisory Council, Provincial Civilian Protection Committee, stated in Victoria that a considerable quantity of eight carloads of civil defence fire-fighting equipment received on the coast from eastern Canada will be allocated to Vancouver Island. Mr. Mainwaring said that the Allied offensive in the Pacific had increased the danger of Japanese raids on the coast and never since the formation of the civil defence organization three years ago had the need for alertness been so great. "While invasion on the coast seems too remote for serious consideration, preparation in the way of equipment and training is under way now against a very real danger from a large number of incendiary fires of enemy origin. Fire is our No. 1 enemy and responsibility of civil defence does not end with its preparations against enemy raids. Our work extends to the protection of life and property through any emergency or the movement of war supplies through civilian channels." He added that British Columbia must be prepared and ready to guard against a sporadic raid or surprise attack from a converted aircraft carrier capable of launching 25 or 30 planes carrying high explosives or incendiaries.

Lt.-Col. Victor Hansen of the Western Defence Command, San Francisco, who warned the Japanese may attempt to bomb the Pacific coast, was one of the best informed men on the coast on that subject and "when he makes such a statement it is based on knowledge not available to civilians," Mr. Mainwaring said. The civilian protection committee's program was to increase both the number and efficiency of the auxiliary fire fighting services by distribution of additional fire-fighting equipment.

Fire-fighting training courses were in progress now, he said, and it was expected to increase to 5,000 auxiliary fire fighters by the end of the year. There was now 3,415 registered auxiliary fire fighters.

Arrangements to release the equipment were made by the Advisory Council with the Dominion Government following orders of the War Cabinet Committee that civil defence services on the Pacific Coast be strengthened and maintained at the highest possible degree of efficiency.

Mr. Mainwaring said re-assessment of the degree of risk on this coast had been made by the War Cabinet Committee at the request of the B.C. Advisory Council.

Artillery Officer-Pilots "Spot By" Plane For 8th Army Gunners

Artillery observation by 'plane is part of the perfected Allied technique of air-land co-operation. Artillery Captains have been trained as pilots to fly a light unarmed machine, the Auster III, made by Messrs. Taylorcraft. It needs a very small runway for taking off and landing, has a rapid rate of climb and relies for protection solely on its manoeuvrability. The A.O.P. Air Observation Post Squadron in the field comes under the operational control of the Army. Whilst in flight the pilot is in direct communication with the Gun Position Officer, and passes him corrections as he observes the fall of shot. The G.P.O. passes corrections on to the guns.

Easter Services In Assumption Church

A solemn high-mass was held at the Assumption Church, West Saanich Road, at 9:30 a.m. The church had been beautifully decorated with lilies and daffodils by a committee of ladies under the direction of Miss H. Hagan.

A mixed choir rendered the mass of "The Angels" and at the offertory sang "Regina, Coeli." Miss M. Lovick was at the organ.

The altar boys for the mass were R. Bartleman, master of ceremonies; incense-bearer, B. Butler; acolytes, J. Paul and P. Paul.

Rev. Father X. Lauzon celebrated the mass and delivered the sermon. He took as his text: "Sing joyfully to God all the earth: serve ye the Lord in gladness." Reviewing the events that had taken place during the last days of our Lord's life here on earth, he showed that those who had been faithful to the Master to the last, had rejoiced with Him on the first Easter. He then told the people who had been faithful to follow the spirit of the church, during lent, that had the right and the happiness of rejoicing with Christ on this Easter Sunday. Their faith like the voice of an angel was telling them that the One they had come to receive in Holy Communion was not a dead being but the Living and Eternal God.

At 10:30 a low mass was said at the church of Our Lady of Sorrows, East Saanich Indian Reserve, where a good congregation of Indians and a few white people attended. Rev. Father X. Lauzon was the celebrant and Raymond Tommy was the servant.

ADDRESSES ON THE MOVE...
IN SPITE OF ALL WAR HAZARDS
31,500,000 LETTERS
REACHED YOUR MEN OVERSEAS LAST YEAR

Do you remember the "Change of Address" form which you filled out when you moved your civilian home? After that was filed at your local Post Office, every letter sent to your old address had to be redirected to the new one, and that went on until your correspondents were familiar with your new location.

Probably you didn't move very often, but each time you did, the Post Office gave redirectory service. And if you will think about that for a moment, you will begin to see what a stupendous task confronts the Canadian Postal Corps in handling the military mails, when thousands of men are being moved almost daily!

Yet, in spite of the need of tracing men from reinforcement units to their locations on fighting fronts... in spite of the need of tracing them through hospitalization... or while on leave... when their unit is moved... in spite of delays in air mail service caused by adverse flying conditions... of delays in surface transportation caused by enemy action...

1. Always be sure each letter or parcel (properly packed) is fully and correctly addressed.
2. Use light-weight paper for regular Air Mail, or use the Armed Forces Air Letter Forms. Airtight letters take a little longer because they must be processed in Canada and overseas.
3. To men in hospital, mark your letter "In Hospital", if you are advised to this effect.
4. Never put into parcels perishable food, or any substance that can be damaged by extremes of temperature.
